🚚 City of Mayville – Winter Parking Rules

Effective Annually: December 1 – April 1
City of Mayville Municipal Code §397-70

❄️ Winter Overnight Parking

- No parking on public streets between 1:00 a.m. – 6:00 a.m. during the winter parking season.
- Parking during these hours is only allowed with a valid Winter Parking Permit issued by the City of Mayville.
- Permits are vehicle-specific and must be displayed as directed.

📝 Winter Parking Permits

- Permits are available at City Hall (Clerk's Office). Permits must be placed on the top corner of the driver's side of the rear window.
- Information required:
  - Owner name
  - Vehicle description (make, model, year, color, license plate)
  - Contact phone & email
  - Mayville address associated with the permit
- Permit fees are set by the Common Council in the annual City Fee Schedule.

🚫 Important Restrictions

Even with a permit, parking is not allowed:

1. During a Snow Event – declared when plows are called out or the Director of Public Works posts notice (website, media).
   - Vehicles must be off streets until plowing is complete curb-to-curb.
   - Violators are subject to ticketing and/or towing.
2. During a Snow Emergency – declared by the Mayor or Council President.
