

Window of opportunity for Bill 8 may be closing within days

A few days ago, I urged you to call the Minister of Education and your local MLA about Bill 8 – The Education Amendment Act. This Act will be on the table again very soon.

So, we have an Easymail ready for you to make one last effort to request amendments. Please go here, <https://easymail.arpacanada.ca/?topic=3317> and send that Easymail out today.

If you haven't made a call yet and would prefer to do that, please do so. Your voice matters. Your voice has an impact.

Please take the opportunity and speak to the Minister about two things:

1. Support amendments that provide exemptions to faith-based schools with regards to student voluntary organizations and clubs that conflict with your religious beliefs and practices.
2. Remove any attestation or “check the box” type of requirement that forces private schools to comply with legislation that is against their conscience and beliefs.

Remember, Bill 8 is an improvement but with your help we can make sure it has even more protections for private schools!

LET'S. DO. THIS.

Contact information for your local MLA and the Minister of Education can be found here, <http://streetkey.elections.ab.ca/skSearchPostalBulk.cfm>.

Thanks so much for your help!
