Boy Scout Troop 731 Pancake Breakfast Yum!

Exchange Club President, Jim Kij, received the Boy Scouts of America Charter from Executive Director Paul Lord. The Exchange Club sponsors Troop 731 and the scouts prepare a pancake breakfast for us every year in appreciation. The boys also help at Exchange Events such as Spaghetti Dinner and Santa's Exchange.

Jacquie Chaumette and her son Raphael enjoyed the delicious fruit, donuts and pancakes.

Brazilian student Bea says goodbye and shows her support for Exchange. This summer she worked at the YMCA and was hosted by Brenda Robinson, Bob & Susan Hargather, Norma Reyna.

President Elect, Betty Baitland, received the first Key (Kij) pin award for service for organizing the Inauguration Dinner. "You are the key" is the theme for Jim Kij's year as President.

YMCS Director, Charlie Meyer, ECSL President, Jim Kij, and Board member, Amy Mitchell show Exchangites the t-shirts that were given to the Sunshine Special participants who attended the Texans Game last Saturday.

Mary Jo Salvaggio, chair of Service to Seniors received a Key service pin along with ECSL volunteers who have served cake and ice cream to the elderly at the Stafford Community Center on the first Friday of every month. Last month they had a "Seniors free shopping spree." Thank you to members who donated new and slightly used items.

Principal of Lakeview Elementary, Janet Moring encouraged members to "make a difference in a child's life" by volunteering at your neighborhood school. If you can volunteer for even 1/2 hour a week, contact Janet.Moring@fortbend.k12.tx.us

Carolyn Tarver, Director of Project S.M.I.L.E received a check for $1500 from ECSL for school supplies for kids.
