Spaghetti Dinner Friday, February 19

Doug Earle, Spaghetti Chair, encouraged Exchangites to sell as many $100 raffle tickets as possible with ENTHUSIASM!!!

Guido (Greg Oelfke) explained how —
ASK 'EM TO BUY IT!

Ron Schneider gave "talking tips" to help sell dinner tickets. He suggested mentioning how we spend the money we raise. A list of events and charities we support is printed on the ticket.

Silent Auction chairs, Toni Spigelmeyer and Margo Pasko requested that items to be brought to Exchange breakfast meetings. Ask business owners you know to donate items. Remind them it's good publicity.

On the second day of Spaghetti an Exchangite gave to me, 2 raffle tickets...

Jake Messinger and his daughter Grace enjoyed the "12 days of Spaghetti" sung by Exchangites at the 12 breakfast tables.

Exchange Events

When a loved one of 58 years goes home to heaven, you fill the gap with your deep faith, loving family and treasured friends which include your Sunday school friends, your neighbors, the work staff at Dillards and the customer base, and best of all the Sugar Land Exchange Club.

To sit home and feel sorry for oneself is a quick way to become worthless. 58 years ago Amazing Grace and I made a vow to love, honor and obey, thru sickness and health, until death do us part. We KEPT that commitment.

I miss Grace, of course, but would not want her back in the condition she was in. She is in a much better place, with Jesus and many great friends that have gone on as she has done.
