President's Message:

Okay Exchangites, more exciting news.

The Child Advocates Cinderella Ball is May 3rd at the Marriott. ECSL is a presenting sponsor. May 4 is The Egg and I restaurant mock service day. This is their practice opening in which there will be only a donation jar with ECSL as the recipient. They have breakfast and lunch service from 8am to 1pm. Invite your family, friends, neighbors etc., but call Mari at 281-242-3447 to make reservations. It is located at Dairy Ashford and 90A. They can serve up to 400, so get some great food and welcome them to SL. I can see them as a future Spaghetti Donor.

The TexLa District Convention is June 6-8 at South Shore Harbour. Go on line and sign up. Brenda Robinson is running for President. Let's support her. Larry Street is a former President and we are due for another.

Welcome two new members who will be inducted Wednesday April 30. They are Rene Cannavo and Anthony Dinh. The Board also approved Kristin Tassin as a new member, so introduce yourself to all 3 and get them involved in your committee. Kristin's induction will be later. Let's welcome them as part of the "family".

Compliments to Cookie Joe and Tran for the great program honoring our police and firefighters. On the 30th, Vita and her team will be honoring the 3 Blue Ribbon Winner schools as we close out Child Abuse Prevention Month.

Keep Jim Kij and Barbara Carlson in your thoughts. They both recently lost loved ones.

See you on the flip side. RJK

He enjoys serving at his church, St. Theresa and with the Knights of Columbus. J.J. was introduced to Exchange club by Past President Steve Griffith.

The 49th Annual Crime Prevention Luncheon sponsored by The Texas Louisiana Gulf Coast District Exchange Clubs honored ten police officers for outstanding performance in ten Houston area districts.
