April is Child Abuse Prevention Month

Show your support!
Wear a Blue Ribbon.

The Exchange Club of Sugar Land participated in the “Light of Hope” event in Sugar Land Town Square to heighten awareness of Child Abuse. Pictured left is Sugar Land Mayor Pro tem Harish Jajoo. ECSL members are also tying blue ribbons around trees in Sugar Land and sponsoring a contest for FBISD schools to create “blue” displays. Pictured above are Ruthanne Mefford, Executive Director of Child Advocates and Doug Earle, ECSL Blue Ribbon Committee Chair.

President's Message:

Exchange Club of Sugar Land is dedicated to the prevention of child abuse by supporting many agencies committed to protecting children. There are quite a few events scheduled in April to raise awareness and bring attention to the frequency of child abuse. Blue Ribbons will be displayed throughout the city and on vehicles to encourage people to talk about preventing child abuse.

I encourage everyone to participate where they can at various events throughout the month. Many area non-profits like ESCAPE, CASA, Fort Bend Women's Center, Depelchin and Fort Bend Regional Council are gearing up to raise the awareness of prevention throughout the month. Supporting the organizations is especially important during Child Abuse Prevention Month. John Robson
