HAPPY ENDINGS

Odie came to us on February 19, 2015. He came to us with a terribly infected neck wound. He was a mess. He had an upper respiratory infection, tapeworm, fleas and ear mites. After being here for a while, we realized he was probably someone's cat at one time because he became more loving and trusting. He loved his new cat friends. Once he was free of all parasites, his wound cleared up, neutered, and he was emotionally healed from the trauma he went through, he was up for adoption. On December 23, 2015, he went to his new forever home and is enjoying the good life.

SHELTER NETWORKING

We were very lucky in 2015 to work with several shelters. In January of 2015, we received a call from the Wisconsin Humane Society Ozaukee Campus asking if we had any young (under 1 year) healthy kittens. They would take up to 10 and we sent 8, we also asked if they would take Pacino, he was 2 years old, came in as a baby, all of his siblings and mom got adopted but no one looked at him. Happy to say that within 2 months all of the kittens and Pacino got their new homes. We also asked Dodge County Humane Society to borrow their large dog type trap. We had news that one of our adopters had escaped their owner and was missing for 3 months. He was cited, we set up the trap and Sammy is now back home with a very grateful owner. We also got assistance from the Watertown Humane Society when we were low on dog food.

FUNDRAISING

In 2015 our dedicated fundraising team raised over $5,000 in their efforts. Our events included our "Chilly" Supper, Tony's Tip Night, Pooch Parade, Concerts in the Park, Art Around Waupun, and donation cans around the City.

Pictured are Mayor Kyle Clark, Jill & Tim Vanderkin, Jim and Joyce Berry enjoying our annual "Chilly" Supper. Thank you for your support!!

THANK YOU!!

We could not do what we do without our wonderful volunteers and the guidance of Dr. Julie Johnson at Maple Knoll Vet Clinic, and vet techs Katie VandeSlunt and Angela Arndt. Every one of our volunteers pours their heart and soul into all of our special animals that we are so lucky to have. Thanks to all of our wonderful contributors who allow us to continue our day to day operations at the shelter.
