

Karigan Blue

Karigan grew up on her family farm in Northwest Ohio where her family raises row crops, commercial and club cattle, and runs a trucking company. She was an active 4-H and FFA member for years. She is a 2017 graduate of Ohio State where she majored in Agricultural Business and Agricultural Communications. While at Ohio State Karigan was active in many clubs and organizations such as Ohio Cattlemen's Association, Ohio Cattlewomen's Association, Ohio BEST Program, AFA, and much more. Karigan has been a volunteer with the Ohio Cattlemen's Association for the last 6 years where she has helped run sanctioned shows across the state of Ohio including their largest, the Ohio Beef Expo. Today Karigan raises commercial and club cattle in partner with another family, and helps their children be successful in the show ring. She also helps her father run her families trucking company on a day to day basis as her full-time job. Karigan enjoys giving back to her community and volunteering at the local, state and national level along with spending time with family and friends, her four legged friends, and Aussie Zada-Jane.
